VOL:XVII

CAPE GIRARDEAU TRIBUNE, CAPE GIRARDEAN, MO., FRIDAY,

FIGHTING ENDED AT 2 P.M. THURSDAY

The Allies and Germany signed an armistice at 11 o'clock Thursday and hostilities ceased at all points on the west front at 2 o'clock in the afternoon.

German representatives advanced to the French outposts under a flag of truce to be conducted to the place where they were to meet General Foch, the Commander of the Allied Armies, who signed on behalf of the Allies. After the armistice was formally signed, orders to cease hostilities were telegraphed to all divisions of combatants.

ARE RUNNING CLOSE IN 14TH DISTRICT

Hays Makes Large Gains Over Hill's Vote Of Two Years Ago --- Re- the most famous in the United States, deau woman who dieds about three formerly a clerk in the Hobbs store sult Is Still A Matter Of Much Speculation

MAJOR HOUCK IS ELECTED OVER SIEMERS BY SIXTEEN VOTES United States. This is the first here of the richest, as well as one of the Remainder Of Republican Ticket Southeast Missouri as a dairying modest as compared with former of divers persons wilfully, wantonly, Elected --- Folk Defeated --- Prohibition Loses In State And County But Made Gains

The election in this cay and country was one of the quietest on record. although a grad deat of interest was shown at the last. Up to the day of ethough a most don, of nterest was shown at the last. Up to the day of held because of the influence situation.

G.bon : Tiouck was the only Democrat elected in the county, his majority over Fritz Schress being 16 votes. F. A. Kage defeated Ben Vinyard for Common Pleas t cik by 196 votes.

The majority against prohibition in the county was 732 votes, there being 1840 dry votes and 2572 for the wets. The wet majority in the city of Cape Cirableau was 59 Incomplete returns from the state Thursday in-Geate, that the amendment had been defeated by about 50,000, although dry littles referred to senerale defeat. The wets made marked gains in the large cit co, while the increase in the dry strengholds was in proporearly reluins rounded the return of Joe Russell to Congress over at war, bursday Mr. Hays ela med that the result would tr'n a maker'ty of not more than 250 either way. Indications lays has called reveral hundred votes over the vote cast for wars ago. Returns are coming in very slow from the counties in the west cade of the district. The Russell managers have received no late news at poon Thursday.

ago. The combined vote of Spencer and the Democratic candidate.

over Paris C po Chardens county

The vote in the county was very the largest given to any candidate The total vote was nearly The returns indicate that half or two 1700 vol 3 below that of two years thirds of the Wilfley men scratched

Folk was 5068. The total vote cast | The latest returns indicate that for the senatoriol candidates, Reed Spencer's majority in the state will be and Dickey, two years agowas 6753, nearly 30,000. Spencer's plurality in receiving $020 of the number St. Louis was a little more than 35. 000. Folk ran behind in nearly every eighteen of his neighbors.

(Continued on Page 6.)

Be Distributed Among New Hamburg Farmers

Henry Bell & Son, near Louisville, trator, Ky. In this large collection are some eartie with thoseughbrods and by con- time.

and butter production. The eighty- death to M ss Mena Almstedt. meyer, Lee Bucher, Mike Dimberger, organized an association of pure bred tion of a future library. the members of the association. The Leyhe were turned over to Mr. Blatt-

(Continued on page 7)

Library, Wills All Personal Property To Old Nurse

Eighty-four head of registered The will of Mrs. Henry Leyhe, the Guernsey cattle, among them some of popular and well known Cape Grar- crick street, wife of Carroll Collins, were purchased last week by Father weeks ago was filed in the Common on Water street, has brought C. Mocnig of New, Hamburg and Pleas court to be probated a few $5,000 damage suit in the Common days ago. The setllement will be made Pleas Court of this city against Wal The leid was purchased from W. by Charles Blattner, public administ ter Lalumedier of Bellevue street.

of the best blooded Guernseys in the hood Mrs. Levhe was considered one at Illmo. of any size to be bought by South- most beautiful and accomplished, girls filed this week is as follows: "Plain-center. For the past several years, She was the daughter of John and maliciously spoke of and concern-Father Moenig has unged his neigh- Filburn, one of the leading merchants, ing the plaintiff certain false, defambors to replace their herds of mediocre of Cape Girardeau, during his life atory and slanderous words, to-wit:

Hamburg, where Moenig I'ves, the clothing, cut glass, china and jewelry, ing and attempted to break into his land is especially adapted for milk which she possessed at the time of her house; and that when he saw her she

Tony Glaetter, Leo Menz, Henry Wel- tended her through her long illness, in the sum of five thousand dollars." ter Frank Miederhog, Henry Breck- and death. She is to live in the People living in the neighborhood Guernoey breeders' Association, which Public Library Association. There is, Mrs. Collins standing near the window Father Moenig, in discussing the houses in the block in which she liv- and was the basis of the suit. purchase said: "It is the result of let- ed and the building on Water street Another suit that was filed in the have bought will be distributed among 200 which were the property of Mrs. ner by Miss Almsteadt. These will to pay the expense of her illness and be sold and the proceeds will be used other claims against the estate.

Eighty-Four Thoroughbrede Will After Deeding Real Estate To Sues Walter Lalumedier for Alleged Slander Other Cases In Common Pleas

> Mrs. Sadie Collins of North Fred-Lalumed er is at present temployed In the days of her young woman- in the Cotton Belt Iron Mountain office

The petition for the suit which was tiff states that defendant on-It paces Scott county in the lead of The estate has dimished until it is; of October in the presence and hear-'That there were thieves in town and After stating in her will that she that there was a woman with them more returns, he has finally induced had already disposed of her real es- and that he knew who she was; that tate. Mrs. Leybe gave and bequested Sadie Collins, meaning plaintiff, was Germans were in the nature of a rout. cans and other vessels, which were Scott county is an excellent dairy all of her personal preperty, which one of the thieves; that she came to county, and in the vicinity of New consisted of household furniture, his home about 2 o'clock in the mornran away down the alley.

four head of Guernseys bought last. Miss Almstedt was her nurse and "Plaintiff further states that the week will be divided among these governess in her childhood, music words so uttered and spoken of and farmers: Joe Schuemer, Oscar Lin- teacher in her girlhood and faithful concerning her were untrue; and that hart, Joseph Dirnberger, Phillip Bu- companies throughout her entire life, she has been greatly injured in her cher, Theon Crojean, John C. Scherer, This old friend and companion at- good name and fame to her damage house near the Courthouse Park, in where the parties live say that during which she and Mrs. Leyhe lived to- the late burglars scares in this city Arthur Vetter, Louis - Danhenmueller, gether, until her death, free of rent. | Lalumedier and his wife told them Some time before her death Mrs. they were awakened by a noise in These eighteen farmers with Fr. Leyhe deeded her real estate property their back yard one night and that Micen's compose the New Hamburg in this city to the Cape Girardeau when they raised the blind they saw was formed when plans were complet- however, a mortgage of $7,500 on the and that she immediately ran away. property, which consists of three This statement reached the plaintiff Brotherhood of Railway Trackmen, of ting the farmers see what others are in which the Cape Dairy Products Common Pleas Court last week was ganizer. doing. Two years ago twelve farmers Company is quartered. After the that of Early P. Ellis, a real estate from New Hamburg went to Wiscon- mortgage is satisfied, the remainder dealer, against Elam W. Masterson. sin to see what the farmers in that will be used for the benefit of the Pub- Ellis is suing to collect $400 which dairy country were doing. As a re- lie Library. The Library Association he claims is due him a a commission sult seven pure breds and many hopes that the house where Mrs. on a real estate deal consummated by grades were bought. Now we have Leyhe lived canbe saved for the loca- him. In his petition claims that he aided Masterson in a deal by which he breeders here at home. The herd we Diamonds and jewelry valued at $1, traded two houses and lots in Cape G

(Contined on page 7)

SCOTT COUNTY MEN MRS-LEYHE, S WILL MRS. COLLINS FILES Paris, November 7 .-- The greatest war in BUY GUERNSEY HERD FILED IN COURT $5000 DAMAGE SUIT two o'clock Thursday afternoon.

Suspension of hostilities followed the signing of an armistice three hours earlier.

The German delegation of representatives and plenipotentiaries arrived at the Allied line under a white flag.

At the time the armistice was signed the army of the Allies were smashing their way forward on a line 150 miles long and extending from the Scheldt to the Meuse, decimating the Germans and driving them in a complete rout.

ing for official confirmation of the through the streets cheering, yelling, news gesterday. While no confirma- and waving flags, drums were pound tion had been received upto last night ed, guns fired and all conceivable it is supposed to be authenic asthis acwas generally expected. Newspapers received the first report of the arm-vancing with great rapidity, took the through the streets city of Sedan. The retirement of the in Cape Girardeau. Whistles blew, of the Allied nations, Officials at Washington were await- bells ring, auto loads of people drov kinds of nose were made.

All kinds of business and industry practically ceased for the day; at 2 o'clock an immense procession, headed by the Schuchert band, the boys A short time before the armistice scouts and the shoe factor; employes, was signed the American army ad-|followed by bundreds of autos, parade-

Many of the autos carried tin lard The news of the surrender of Cor- used in making a noise, and a great many yesterday was greeted by the celebration took place. No doubt the greatest demonstration ever occurring same happened in all cities and towns

TRACKMEN UNIONS BEING ORGANIZED

A.D. Parker Is OrGanized Lodges For American Brotherhood Of Railway fractman

A. D. Parker returned Monday from a trip which took him to Sikeston, Poplar Bluff, Dtlta and other points in the interest of the American throughout the Unittd States and is which he was recently appointed or-

The A. B. of R. T. is composed railroad employes of the kind. Un- leases control. ions of these workers are being organized on every railroad in the country. An attempt will be made by the unions to hold up their wages to an suitable and just basis which they have reached under government control. Although it is conceded that track work is important to the operation of a railroad, and the wages of these workers were the lowest of any on the reads before the war. One dolar and a quarter a day was the highest paid on any road in this part of the

The headquarters of the organization for this state is at Bonne Terre. The work of organization is proceeding on many of the big trunk line systems said to have the encouragement of Secretary McAdoo. It is believed that if these workers can present a united front they can command decent wages, otherwise they will drop back to their section men, extra gangs adn other former level when the government re-

> An organization has been perfected in Cape Girardeau and practically every working man in the lines specified above has joined. Each member is allowed a benefit of one dollar a day when sick and unable to work and a bu-ial fund if death ensues.